2.4 All events and benefits organised by or through the Club are subject to the following payment and cancellation policy. Payment is required on booking of any event. In the event of cancellation by a member, the member will not be entitled to any refund from the Club. In the event of cancellation by the Club, an appropriate refund will be made at the discretion of the Club.

2.5 Adult and young persons memberships are entitled to one ticket to any Goodwood Aero Club event, family memberships are entitled to two tickets unless the event is advertised for members and their guests.

2.6 Membership includes use of The Kennels clubhouse which forms part of the Goodwood Estate, in which case only members named on the membership card may entertain guests in The Kennels. Guests must be accompanied by a member at all times. The entertaining member will be responsible for all charges incurred by their guests and for their guests' good conduct and observance of any rules and regulations from time to time applicable to the use of The Kennels.

2.7 Items sent to addresses outside the UK may be subject to import duties, taxes, customs charges and/or handling fees imposed by the destination country. These charges are outside of The Club's control and are the responsibility of the recipient. The amount charged will vary depending on the country of delivery

3. Rights and obligations

3.1 A membership year runs from 1 January to 31 December each year.

3.2 Dues are payable in advance and the annual fee is due prior to the start of each membership year.

3.3 Failure to pay the required dues within the time specified by the Club for renewal of membership shall constitute grounds for forfeiture of membership privileges and may constitute grounds for termination of membership.

4. Data Protection and Compliance

4.1 In accordance with the Data Protection Act 2018, each company in the Goodwood group (The Goodwood Estate Company Limited and each of its subsidiaries) (the ‘Company’) is registered with the United Kingdom's Information Commissioner's Office as a data controller to collect information. The Company gathers personal information, such as first and last names, contact details, addresses and email addresses to help the Company manage the membership. The Company also reserves the right to use or disclose any information as needed to satisfy any law, regulation or legal request, to fulfil the requests of members or to provide members with information. Such communications will be provided to members by email, post or by telephone. All personal information that the Company collects about its members will be recorded, used, and protected by the Company in accordance with applicable data protection legislation. The Company's privacy policy can be found at www.goodwood.com, which sets out the Company's general and overarching policy regarding privacy and data.

4.2 The Club conducts its business in an honest and ethical way and has in place anti-bribery and anti-corruption policies. The Club requires that all its employees, agents and subcontractors comply with all applicable laws, statutes and regulations relating to anti-bribery and anti-corruption, including but not limited to the Bribery Act 2010 ("Relevant Legislation"). The Club will not tolerate any activity, practice, or behaviour by any its employees, agents, subcontractors, or members or guests, that would constitute an offence under any Relevant Legislation, and in the case of a member, this will result in immediate termination of membership.

5. Disputes

The Club and the members should always seek to resolve any disagreements in a friendly manner and in good faith. In the absence of an amicable settlement, any dispute will be judged exclusively by the courts of England.

The Club reserves the right to change these Terms and Conditions from time to time.
