

Name the Cars to Win Tickets to the Festival of Speed

11th April 2016

The Goodwood Festival of Speed has become a favourite event for the world's top marques to reveal their latest models in action.

Alongside the greatest racing cars in history, manufacturers regularly use Goodwood as a launch pad for their latest supercars and high performance road cars, often running them for the first time in public at the Festival.

Goodwood is pleased to release the following film on www.facebook.com/goodwoodrrc inviting participants to name a selection of mystery cars from previous years filmed driving up the famous Hill.
