

0730hrs

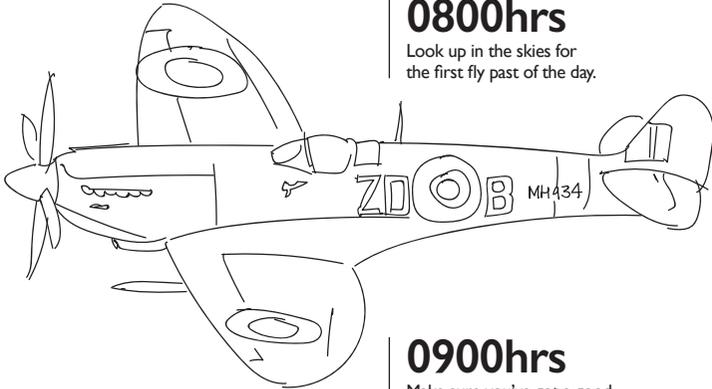

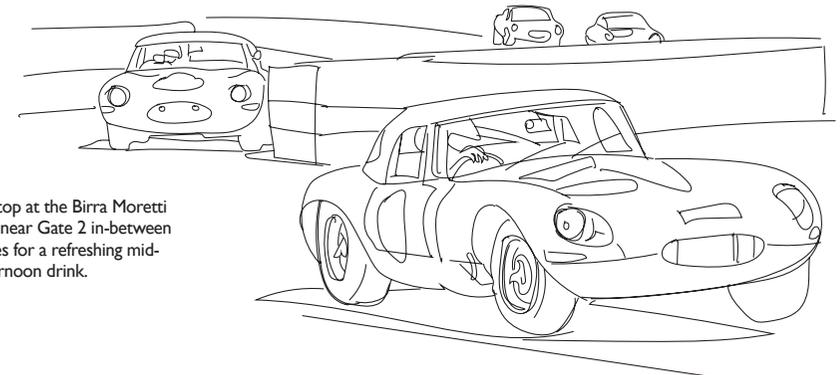

Beat the crowds in the morning and grab yourself some warming Breakfast butties and hot drinks at the Hurricane Café and have a nose around the paddocks near the Freddie March Spirit of Aviation.

0800hrs

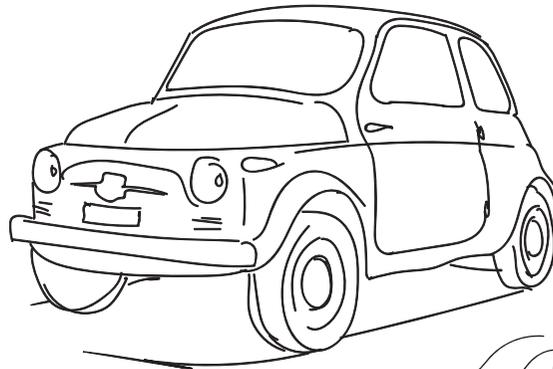

Look up in the skies for the first fly past of the day.

FRIDAY PLANNER FOR MOTORING ENTHUSIASTS

0900hrs

Make sure you've got a good space by the track to watch the two-lap parade of Fiat 500's as we celebrate sixty years of the little cinquecento.

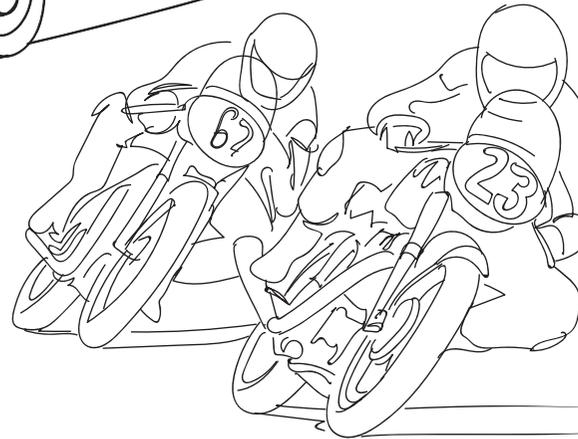

Pitstop at the Birra Moretti Bar near Gate 2 in-between races for a refreshing mid-afternoon drink.

If you haven't already, enter the Avtrade competition for your chance to win a Bose Speaker Bundle at the Freddie March Spirit of Aviation.

0830hrs

Quickly head to the Earls Court Motor Show with your camera for the unveiling of the world premiere and eagerly anticipated new TVR!

1545hrs

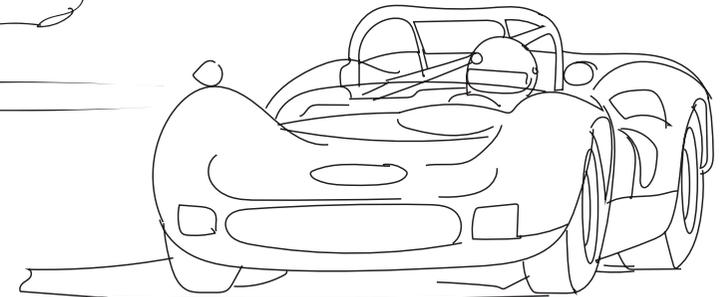

Specifically for the tartan or kilt attired, head to the spectator grid walk for our tribute for the Scottish racing team, Ecurie Ecosse.

1845hrs

As the sun sets, enjoy the wonderful atmosphere as dusk falls on the first race of the weekend, the Kinrara Trophy.

1600hrs

After the High-Speed Demo, catch the tractor round to Lavant Corner for uninterrupted views of the next official practice.

1200hrs

In-between the races, visit Over the Road for the JLR Classics Barn for a full car park of pre-66 vintage Jags.

0945hrs

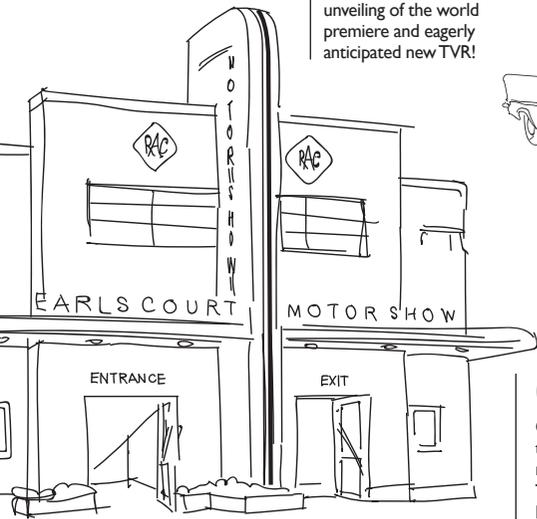

Grab a prime spot by the Startline for more track action with the first official practice races of the event, including the Kinrara Trophy, Chichester Cup and the Barry Sheene Memorial Trophy for all the two-wheeled fans.

1300hrs

Need to refuel? Pay a visit to the Startline Café in an Italian themed piazza offering freshly baked Italian subs, pasta and calzone.

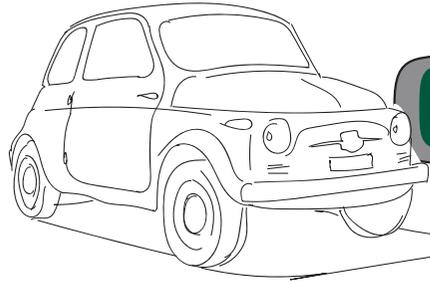

1315hrs

Don't miss out on more practice racing including Ferraris and Maseratis going head-to-head around the challenging Woodcote and Chicane corners.

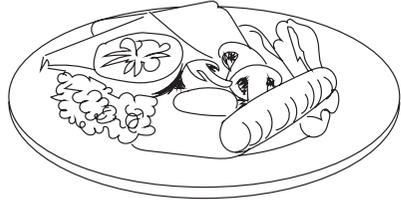

0730hrs

Start early to avoid the crowds!
Grab yourself some warming
Breakfast butties and hot drinks at the Startline Café to take with you on the go so you don't waste a moment, and have a nose around the paddocks.

This year, it's the ten-year anniversary of the Freddie March Spirit of Aviation, so do check out the vast array of special aircraft on display.

0920hrs

Head to a good space by the track to watch the two-lap parade of Fiat 500's as we celebrate sixty years of the little cinquecento.

SATURDAY PLANNER FOR MOTORING ENTHUSIASTS

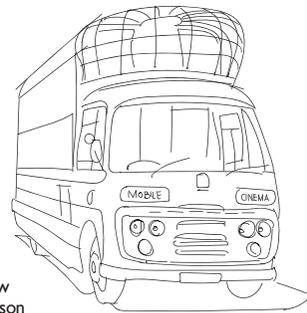

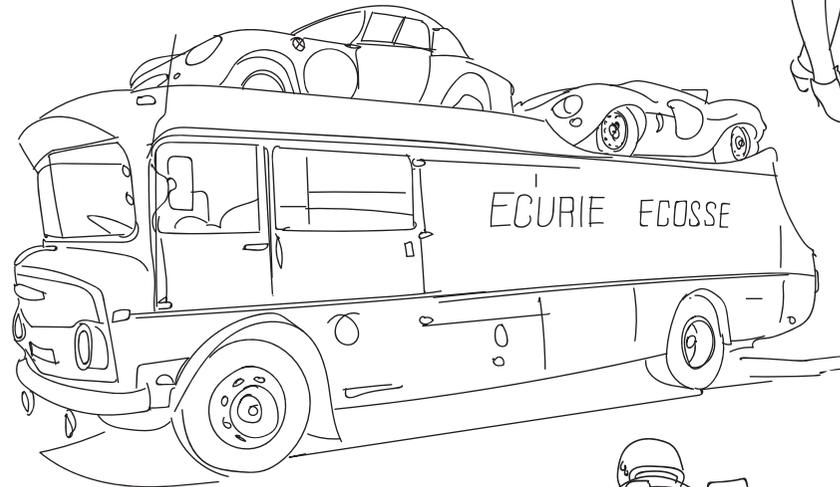

0830hrs

Look up in the skies for the first fly past of the day.

1030hrs

Need a new motor?
Make a bid for your dream car at the Bonhams auction.

1600hrs

Before you go, visit Over the Road for the Revival Car Show presented by Smith & Williamson for even more classics to admire!
Whilst you're over there, stop off at our new Valdoe Bar for a refreshing selection of ales and wines.

In the Earls Court Motor Show, vote for your favourite historic TVR to be in with the chance of winning two tickets to next year's Goodwood Revival.

For a full itinerary of the event, don't forget to pick up your programme and radio headset from one of the programme stands.

1000hrs

Grab a prime spot by the Woodcote Corner for more track action with the first races of the event, including the Chichester and Madgwick Cups.

1235hrs

Specifically for the tartan or kilt attired, head to the spectator grid walk for our tribute for the Scottish racing team, Ecurie Ecosse.

1715hrs

Enjoy the last race of the day and see Ferraris and Maseratis go head-to-head in the Freddie March Memorial Trophy.

1150hrs

Wander round the circuit to Madgwick corner for a new perspective from which to view the official practice of the Royal Automobile Club TT celebration.

1330hrs

Lunchtime? Pay a visit to the RevivalFest for a taste of Germany and enjoy grilled bratwurst, pretzels and Bavarian beer.

Don't miss heading to the Earls Court Motor Show with your camera for the unveiling of the new TVR and admire some of the other most exclusive cars of the event.

0730hrs

Grab yourself a hearty breakfast and a hot drink at the Spitfire Café and have a nose around the Freddie March Spirit of Aviation Exhibition before the track action starts.

For a full itinerary of the event, don't forget to pick up your programme and radio headset from one of the programme stands.

1145hrs

Don't forget part 2 of the famous Barry Sheene Memorial Trophy will be on track at 11:45am.

1000hrs

Grab a prime spot by the Startline for more track action with the first races of the day, including the Brooklands and Richmond Trophies.

1125hrs

The fabulously entertaining and competitive Settrington Cup will take place so grab a great viewing spot by the Chicane and Startline.

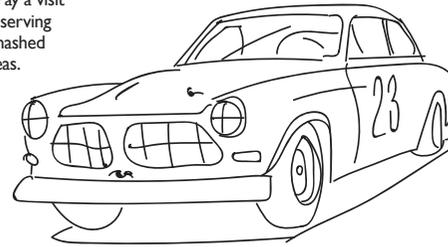

SUNDAY PLANNER FOR MOTORING ENTHUSIASTS

1230hrs

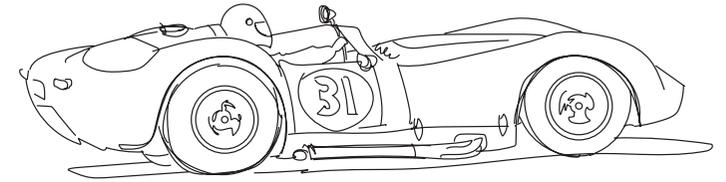

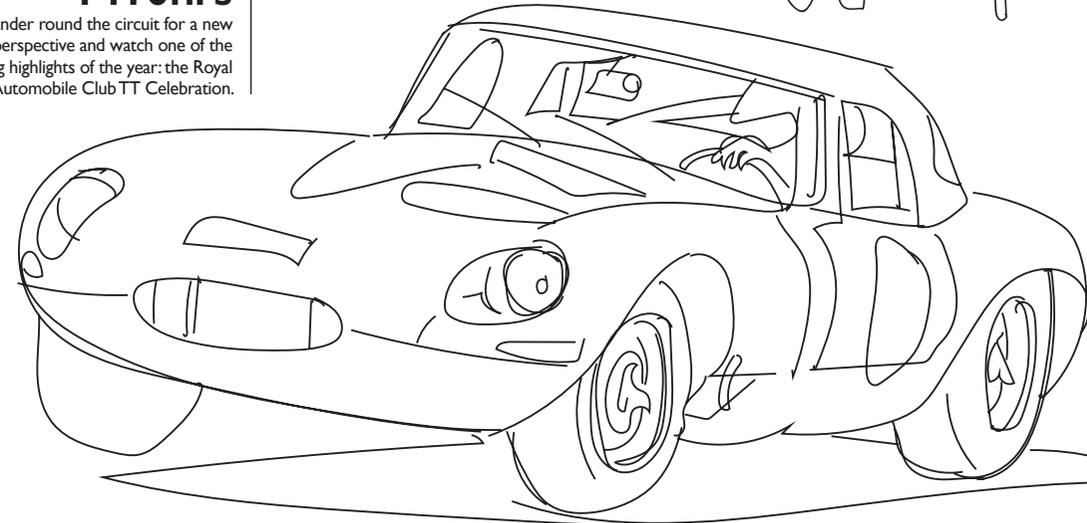

In need of refuelling? Pay a visit to the Pie & Pint stall, serving handmade pies with mashed potatoes, gravy and peas.

Join Monkey at the PG Tips Tea Shed between 14:00-16:00pm each day!

1410hrs

Wander round the circuit for a new perspective and watch one of the racing highlights of the year: the Royal Automobile Club TT Celebration.

In-between the races during the day, make your way over to the Rolex Drivers Club for a chance to meet and greet the Drivers.

1830hrs

Before you head home from what we hope to be a magical time at this year's Revival, gather round Race Control for the celebratory Prize Giving.

1700hrs

Catch the last race of the weekend, the Sussex Trophy truly evokes the period as Jaguars, Listers, Lotus, Ferraris and Maseratis compete for honours.

