Salvadori Pavilions at Goodwood Revival

11 – 13 September 2020

Incredible views from a balcony or private garden, this is one of the most desirable vantage points on the circuit

Named in honor of multiple Goodwood winner Roy Salvadori these Art Deco styled pavilions offer a sophisticated choice situated next to the famous Goodwood Chicane. As Roy once said 'Give me Goodwood on a summer's day and you can forget the rest of the world'.

With incredible views from the balcony or private garden, the Salvadori Pavilions are one of the most desirable vantage points on the circuit where you can enjoy hospitality on a private table. Whatever the weather excitement is guaranteed as you see the cars hitting great speeds and burning rubber along the straight.

You and your guests can look forward to luxurious hospitality all day, from the moment you arrive, with a Champagne reception, breakfast, lunch, Afternoon Tea and a selection of unlimited wine, beers and soft drinks. You will also be given a programme and ear piece radio on arrival to your pavilion and to really get up close to the magnificent display of cars and bikes you will also have access to the paddocks.

Here's what you can look forward to:

Assembly Rooms at Goodwood Revival

12 – 13 September 2020

Experience the Revival from this famous landmark, right at the edge of the track

The cars hurtle past you, turning into the Woodcote corner at such speed they are almost sideways, heading up the chicane right in front of your eyes. Great skill is required to navigate the turn and provides thrilling spectator action.

Relax and enjoy the social atmosphere and music of this fun, tongue-in-cheek themed venue, with a table for the day. A base from which to enjoy trackside viewing, from your private grandstand, Betty's Salon demonstrations and just a stone's throw away from the vintage high street. Guests will also be served a light breakfast, lunch, cakes and scones and unlimited wine beer and soft drinks and unlimited access to the paddocks.

This exclusive club is seen in many pictures during the renowned historic racing days at Goodwood and is situated right at the edge of the track, with dedicated grandstand seats. The remarkable 1950s building hosts a thrilling vantage point by entry to Woodcote corner, one of the fastest on the circuit and is the perfect base for those who wish to explore the high street or over the road in addition to the racing.
