

Dark Pedals Furiously to Win Settrington Cup Opener

10 September 2016

Henry Dark stormed to victory in the opening installment of the Settrington Cup. Young Henry, whose father Tom finished on the podium earlier today in the Goodwood Trophy race, was in a class of his own among the junior racers who pedaled identical Austin J40s. He finished a clear eight car lengths ahead of his pursuers, with Jon Milicevic Jr placing second ahead of a hard-charging James Blakeney-Edwards. In a short post-race interview, young Master Dark attributed his victory to 'training hard'. The second half of this popular race for the next generation of historic racing stars will take place tomorrow morning.
