Goodwood is England’s greatest sporting Estate. The first Duke of Richmond originally visited this area of the Sussex Downs to enjoy the fox hunting with the famous Charlton Hunt. He bought the house in 1697, and it has remained the seat of the Dukes of Richmond ever since.

Over the past three centuries Goodwood has played a prominent role in the English summer season. Today, thanks to world-renowned events such as the Festival of Speed, Goodwood Revival and The Qatar Goodwood Festival, there is no finer place in the country to enjoy motor sport and horseracing.

In addition to the high-speed thrills of the racetrack, guests of Goodwood can also enjoy two championship golf courses, the very best shooting, cricket matches on one of England’s oldest grounds, and even the opportunity to take off from a celebrated Battle of Britain airfield.

With a range of luxury accommodation, an award-winning restaurant and a fully equipped health club at your disposal, we hope you will enjoy discovering Goodwood’s famous hospitality first-hand.

The HORSE RACING SEASON

The season may peak with the Qatar Goodwood Festival, but there is outstanding horseracing at Goodwood from May through to October.

Horseracing has taken place on top of the Sussex Downs since 1801, when the 3rd Duke of Richmond held a private race meeting for the Sussex Militia. It was such a success that the following year he held Goodwood’s first public race meeting.

Today, in addition to the world-famous Qatar Goodwood Festival, there are 14 days of high-class racing at Goodwood, where the colour, excitement and spectacle of seeing racehorses and jockeys close up is more than matched by the stunning setting.

The 2018 season’s highlights include the three-day Festival of Food & Racing, the dynamic Three Friday Nights in June – when a thrilling day’s racing is followed by an evening of dancing and globally renowned DJs – and the nostalgic August Bank Holiday weekend.

It’s an unforgettable experience: a visceral assault on the senses; an intoxicating display of speed and power; a juxtaposition of genteel heritage and fierce modernity: Welcome to the Festival of Speed.

In 1993, the inauguration of the Festival of Speed marked the return of motorsport to Goodwood. Goodwood has been farmed by the family for over three hundred years and is one of the only self-sustaining organic farms in Europe. These organic principles enable our farmer, Tim Hassell, to produce the best-tasting beef, pork and lamb, all of which are reared right here.

Our butcher, John Hearn, is directly involved in designing dishes according to what cuts are available. An original approach, inspired by our Executive Chef, Darron Bunn, means that nothing is wasted. The Butcher’s Boards are an imaginative way to enjoy our beef, pork and lamb: they highlight different cuts served in a variety of tasty dishes. Marrying the expertise of our farmer, butcher and chef, the changing menu champions seasonal English flare, showcasing our own produce along with selected ingredients from local suppliers.

The scale, grandeur and aesthetic quality have all been improved, enhancing the spectacular views across the Estate and beyond, and playing surfaces are maintained to the very highest standards.

The Kennels clubhouse provides beautifully appointed facilities, with walnut lockers and soft Pima cotton towels. Our unique Woody buggies, designed by Lord March’s grandfather in the 1930s, even come complete with wicker baskets for sandwiches and Champagne.

The Park Course
World-renowned golf course architect Donald Steel was commissioned to produce a design that would reflect the prestige of its stunning backdrop: Goodwood House and its 18th-century cedar. The result is an easy-walking 6650-yard course that suits all levels of golfing ability but still provides ample challenges for any golfer. Indeed, the calibre of the course has been confirmed with the successful hosting of national and international tournaments.

The Park Course is located at The Goodwood Hotel, where guests can enjoy superb facilities including stylish locker and shower rooms and access to the informal Bar & Grill, which serves delicious food in a relaxed atmosphere throughout the day.

Golf at Goodwood
With a heritage stretching back to 1914 and two very different courses to choose from, golf has always played an important role at Goodwood.

Goodwood is blessed with not one but two beautiful 18-hole golf courses, allowing players to choose the level they want to play at according to their game, or even their mood. The Downs is widely considered the finest downland course in England, and is rated amongst the country’s ‘Top 100’ courses. It has fast-running fairways, undulating greens and dramatic changes of level thanks to its location amid the downland valleys and hills – ideal for those who want more of a challenge.

For a gentler day’s golfing, you could choose The Park, where the tree-lined fairways take you on a pleasant stroll across the parkland in front of Goodwood House. All this in the heart of some of southern England’s most beautiful countryside.
Enjoy a day’s shooting in the heart of Goodwood Estate’s spectacular Sussex countryside for a truly unique experience.

Finding an unusual way of getting together with clients or organising a team building exercise with a difference for your team can be difficult. A day’s clay or simulated game shooting is the perfect way for everyone to experience some healthy sporting competition – as well as plenty of fresh air – at a range of inspirational locations across the Goodwood Estate.

Goodwood has been hosting shooting parties for hundreds of years. Today our team comprises an array of attentive staff who both love the sport themselves and also understand the important details necessary to make an enjoyable and safe day’s shooting. The recent introduction of simulated game days has provided an attractive alternative to traditional shooting experiences, giving you plenty of choice when it comes to selecting the right one for your group. Whatever your preference, shooting at Goodwood is a fantastic activity that gives you the opportunity to entertain clients or bond with colleagues in magnificent surroundings.

Lessons are often available for guests of The Goodwood Hotel in groups of a minimum of two people, when booked at least a few working days in advance, while bespoke group events may be arranged on request.

Clay Shooting

A stone’s throw below the Trundle, our Clay Pigeon shooting ground is situated in a stunning bowl-like arena. Suitable for novices and crack-shots alike, our package includes all equipment, and our instructors will provide bespoke personal tuition to improve your shooting. Whether as an enjoyable day out or as part of a larger event, clay shooting is a great activity to enjoy outside with your clients, colleagues or friends, while group catering can be provided at the Clay Shooting Lodge.

Simulated Game Days

Simulated Game Days are amongst the best ways to prepare for the season or can simply be enjoyed as an alternative day shoot. Utilising the stunning valleys in Goodwood Park, the team has created a truly fun day out, providing guests with the chance to see each other in action on a variety of drives as they hone their own skills. The Goodwood team of loaders will coach each individual gun during the simulated drives, closely mimicking the experience of game shooting. The day includes morning coffee with bacon rolls, a mid-morning snack and drink, and concludes with lunch at The Kennels.
